			the contract in case the client breaches any of its material obligations under the contract, provided a notice for such breach is given to the client along with a rectification period of 30 days.	under the contract, provided a notice for such breach is given to the client along with a rectification period of 30 days.
8	No clause in RFP	Liquidated damages	We understand that we would be liable to pay liquidated damages to the extent corresponding breach is solely attributable to us. Kindly confirm.	No Change
9	No clause in RFP	Arbitration	We request client to consider referring the disputes to arbitration as per Indian laws. It is easier, faster and less cumbersome. With the recent amendments, it has become even more effective. GFR and MeitY guidelines also encourage arbitration. We therefore request you to kindly consider the below clause inclusion: "In case, a dispute is not amicably resolved within forty five (45) days of referral by one party to another, it shall be resolved through arbitration, in India, in accordance with the provisions of Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 (and any amendments thereto). The venue of such arbitration in India shall be the _____."	No Change

10	No clause in RFP	Acceptance	If the project is to be completed on time, it would require binding both parties with timelines to fulfil their respective part of obligations. We request that you incorporate a deliverable acceptance procedure, perhaps the one provided by MeitY in their guidelines, or the one suggested below, to ensure that acceptance of deliverables is not denied or delayed and comments, if any, are received by us well in time. You may consider including the below simple clause: "Within 10 days (or any other agreed period) from Client's receipt of a draft deliverable, Client will notify Consultant if it is accepted. If it is not accepted, Client will let Consultant know the reasonable grounds for such non-acceptance, and Consultant will take reasonable remedial measures so that the draft deliverable materially meets the agreed specifications. If Client does not notify Consultant within the agreed time period or if Client uses the draft deliverable, it will be deemed to be accepted."	No Change
